

Do not allow further concentration of media by relaxing the rules that allow the big media fish to swallow the little media fish and thus deprive us of the opportunity to hear a large choice of independant news sources.